Confirm Your Polling Place

This will be the first General Election in Alexandria since redistricting, and some city residents will find themselves in new precincts and new legislative districts. New voter cards were mailed in early August to everyone affected by precinct or district changes, however, Alexandria voters who want to double-check their registration status or polling place location can go to the State Board of Election's Voter Look-Up Page. Voters may also verify their information by calling the Alexandria Office of Voter Registration at 703.746.4050.
